

TRUSTEES' MEETING

RAILROAD COMMISSION GIVES NOTICE OF HEARING ON THE FREIGHT RATE INCREASE.

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 8:10 p.m., June 7, 1917. All members present at roll call.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from O. E. Van Oven, representing the Y.M.C.A., stating that the writer has been given the whole of the San Fernando Valley to canvass in the interests of the war work fund of that association and requesting that if practicable, the trustees make a subscription to the fund. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole in connection with the City Attorney.

A communication was presented and read from the Railroad Commission of the State of California, giving notice of a hearing to be held on some date in the near future for the purpose of giving California shippers an opportunity to present testimony bearing upon the application of the railroads and steamship companies of the State for permission to increase California freight rates; requesting that the trustees assist the commission in the way of giving the matter all possible publicity, and to be represented at the meetings of the commission. On motion of Trustee Grist, the communication was received, ordered to be filed and to be published twice in The Glendale Daily Evening News.

Reports were presented from the following city officials: Building Inspector, Treasurer, health officer and City Clerk, which, on motion, were ordered to be filed.

The City Attorney made a statement in regard to the letter sent under date of May 14 to the members of the Board of Trustees, personally in regard to public printing, desiring that the record may show that the communication was considered by the members of the board in Committee of the Whole, and at that time was referred to him for an opinion, the matter not coming before the board in regular session.

On motion of Trustee Grist, it was so ordered.

MASONS GO VISITING.

The Masons of Glendale are looking forward to a very enjoyable trip to Santa Paula Saturday afternoon. They have been invited by the Santa Paula lodge to confer the third degree Saturday evening, after which they are to be taken up in the woods along the banks of the Santa Clara River, where a banquet is to be served around an old-fashioned camp fire.

Hotel accommodations have been secured for those who do not desire to sleep in the woods. The Santa Paula boys are also going to serve breakfast in the morning, after which fishing will be the principal sport. Our genial senior warden, Brother Neel, informs us that he has corraled all the fish in the river in a little pool so that we will have no trouble in catching the limit.

At noon the Santa Paula boys will be the guests of Glendale at an old-fashioned barbecue.

Those who have not already notified the Entertainment Committee of their intention to go, please notify C. B. Wilde at the Ford Agency or 1331 Milford street, by Saturday noon.

Remember the time. We will leave the Masonic Temple at 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon. There will be plenty of automobiles to take all who can go. Don't forget your fishing tackle and blankets.

DEATH OF R. W. ARNOLD.

Died, at the home of his mother, 1418 Ivy street, Glendale, Cal., June 4, 1917, Ralph Warren Arnold, age 40. He leaves to mourn his loss a mother and two sisters. Funeral services will be held at the chapel of Soeven-Letton-Frey Co., in Tropic, Saturday, June 9, at 3 p.m.

Remains will be placed in the vault at Forest Lawn until fall, when they will be shipped to Detroit for interment.

ATTENTION! GLENDALE BOY SCOUTS!

Say, fellows, if you knew what will be doing at the Congregational Church this evening you'd be there in a bunch, even if you knew you would be taken "sniping" and compelled to fish for "Goovers." Just you ask Howlett and Townsend. They're well posted.

FIELD CORRESPONDENT, Glendale Boy Scouts.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

ART CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL HIGH JINX, INITIATION AND BANQUET.

One of the jolliest parties of the year was held at the high school Saturday evening, when the members of the Art Club had their annual high jinx and initiation. Everyone had been asked to appear masked and in a costume that was in some way connected with modern art. Some very cute and original ideas were worked out that caused much admiration and mirth.

The first feature of the evening was the initiation and had anyone been near the high school they would surely have thought that someone was going through the initiation of medieval times, by the yells and shrieks that filled the air. But nevertheless it proved very thrilling for those being initiated and was an unusual opportunity for those doing the initiating.

After this the party played some entertaining games and those present had the chance of showing how much they knew, or, as in one or two cases, how much they didn't know, of art.

Last, but by no means least, came the banquet. This was held in the model bungalow and the club colors, green and yellow, was the attractive color scheme used. The table was laid for fifteen and all were unanimous in declaring the table to be the most artistic they had ever seen.

In the center of the table a basket, which was indeed the embodiment of modern art, rested upon a huge palette of green flowers, fruits and vegetables of the most unusual kinds and colors were used for this. Under each plate a palette of the same kind, though smaller, was used. The place cards were in the shape of tubes of paint. A delicious banquet was enjoyed by those present, after which they adjourned at a late hour. Those privileged to attend were Mr. George U. Moyses, Miss M. Irene Muller, Jenny Lacy, Marion Gamble, Ruth Hall, Helen Fischer, Elsie Fischer, Eloise Seaman, Aileen Freeman, Carrie Stone, Harriet Williams, Mona Butler, Alma Pardon, Ed Seay and Elwood Ingledue.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock this year's German Club held their last business meeting and party for the last time, the affair taking place in the music room. The first ten minutes were turned over to a business meeting, with Mary Elizabeth Stellar, the president of the society, presiding. When the roll was called each member was requested to recite a proverb in German, a feature which caused a great deal of laughter and also much concentration. The newly elected officers for next year's club were then called on to make short speeches, after which a vocal duet in German by Florence Heacock and Evangeline Hunchberger was beautifully rendered. Mildred Wight accompanied them on the piano. The remainder of the program consisted of the initiation of the new members, they being made to do everything from reciting a German poem to rolling a peanut across the floor with the nose. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were then served.

INFORMAL DANCE.

Probably the most enjoyable social affair of the season was the informal dance given last evening by Earl Brown at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Price Brown, at the corner of Second and Louise streets. About half of the thirty odd guests were Earl's senior classmates, the remainder being some of his close friends. The home was exquisitely decorated with green and white, making a very pleasing color effect with the amber colored walls as a background. The two large front rooms were cleared of furnishings and dancing began at about 8:30 o'clock. Throughout the evening delicious punch and wafers were served by Mrs. Brown. Those who enjoyed the affair were the Misses Bernice Hahn, Ernestine Lyon, Cecilia Lyon, Marjorie Imler, Ida Potter, Rebecca Gregg, Margaret Gregg, Helen Harden, Helen MacMullin, Catherine Phillips, Katharine Renshaw, Catherine Lord, Maybelle Newcomb, Dorothy Hobbs, Aileen Freeman, Eloise Seaman, Lila Shea and Eunice Peart; Messrs. Earl Brown, Olin Wilson, Milton Brown, John Sharpe, Jesse Flower, Harry Glazier, D. S. Brown, Vardeman Bailey, Kenneth Perrin, Tom Phillips, William Renshaw, Monty Coole, Eldred Marlatt, Wayne Smith, Maxwell Sheriger, Walter Beach, Lyndon Keyes and Howard McGillis.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Saturday. Cloudy or foggy along the coast. Westerly winds.

PERSHING IS IN ENGLAND

COMMANDER OF AMERICA'S FIRST EXPEDITIONARY FORCE ARRIVED AT ENGLISH PORT THIS MORNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

A BRITISH PORT, June 8.—Major General John J. Pershing, commander of America's first expeditionary force, arrived in England this morning accompanied by his staff. He reported a pleasant trip and expressed astonishment that the news of his departure from the United States had been successfully suppressed. "I thought the whole world knew about my leaving America," he said. The American army chief and staff were given a huge ovation by the British. General Pershing will go from this port to London this afternoon.

"I am glad we are the standard bearers of our country in this great war for civilization," Pershing said. "To land on British soil and receive such a welcome is very significant. We expect soon to be playing our part—and I hope it is to be a very large part—on the west front."

Pershing will probably consult with British war authorities and then go to France to inspect the site selected for his army.

NAVY AVIATORS IN FRANCE

FIRST OF AMERICA'S REGULAR FIGHTING FORCES HAVE LANDED ON FRENCH SOIL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—One hundred American navy aviators to aid in detecting submarine operations and other active duty have arrived safely in France according to an official announcement made to-day. These are the first officers and men of the regular fighting forces of America actually to land in Europe.

DISASTER IN SAN SALVADOR

ISLAND WRECKED BY VOLCANO AND FIRE—AMERICAN LEGATION DESTROYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—An important section of San Salvador has been destroyed by volcano, earthquake and fire according to advices just received from Minister Long at San Salvador. The American legation was ruined, buildings were wrecked but no deaths are reported thus far.

HAITI BREAKS RELATIONS

WEST INDIAN REPUBLIC LINES UP WITH AMERICA AND HER ALLIES AGAINST GERMANY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 8.—Relations between Germany and Haiti were formally broken to-day. Thus another republic lines up on the side of democracy.

WAR WILL NOT END SOON

BEST INFORMED GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAY THERE IS NO HOPE OF ALLIED VICTORY IN 1917

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Hope of an Allied victory in 1917 is gone according to best informed government officials. Frank admission was made to-day that American war plans are based on the probability of the war lasting at least three years. Conceit has given way to conception of the enormous job up to the United States, that of landing the knock-out blow to German militarism.

RUSSIA IN THE BALANCE

NONE BUT A DICTATOR CAN RESTORE DISCIPLINE AND PERSUADE RUSSIA SHE MUST FIGHT

PETROGRAD, June 8.—Russia is hanging in the balance between Czarism and mobism. America and the Allies must face this fact squarely. Under present conditions Russia will not fight. None but a dictator can restore discipline. Attempts to convert Russia to the idea that she must fight the Germans have failed. The prospects are gloomy.

WANTS REVENGE

AMERICAN SOLDIER THRICE WOUNDED BY THE KAISER'S BULLETS EAGER TO GET BACK TO TRENCHES

LONDON, June 8.—Harry McMichael of Augusta, Georgia, has been wounded three times by the Kaiser's missiles but is waiting for another shot at a spiked helmet. Mac learned the game in the Second U. S. cavalry. He joined the Fifteenth Canadian Battalion in June, 1915. A machine gun bullet hit his leg in the fall of that year. Back from the hospital a shell fragment nicked his brow as he "went over the top" in a charge. Back once more he took a stretch and a yawn in view of the German trenches and a bullet bored his jaw, removing five teeth. He wants to join the Americans when they arrive and his ear is eager for the welcome sound of "Dixie."

RED CROSS EXECUTIVE

PLAN FOR GREAT MEMBERSHIP DRIVE FOR RED CROSS WEEK.

A special meeting of the Glendale Red Cross Executive Committee was held at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, at 7:30 last evening.

Those attending were Mesdames Bartlett, Hutchinson, R. E. Chase, A. S. Chase, Beamon, Harlan, Ocker and Mrs. Frank Chambers, new president Colorado School P.-T. A.; Messrs. Harrower, Cowan, Beamon, McCrea, Mills and Church. Vice-Chairman Dr. McCrea presided, in the absence of Chairman Braly. Minutes and general reports dispensed with.

At last! At last! At last! Mrs. Beamon caught a really, truly comfort bag. The lovely thing is of the Dolly Varden type; looks nice enough to eat—if the boys in the trenches are starving. It has more pockets than a cat has lives, and every one of them in the right place. She roped it all herself with her own little thimble, thread and needle. The problem is solved—display it at all recruiting stations—the slackers will join—just for the joy of wearing one. Miss Waite of the Colorado School bought the yarn and knit twenty beautiful snow-white "wipers," which she donated to the G. R. C.

Dr. Harrower, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, announced that on the afternoon of June 22 Miss Ellen Beach Yaw would sing at Mrs. C. H. Toll's garden and lawn party. By request of Mrs. Toll, the admission will be only 25 cents, so that everyone may come; children under 10 years of age, with parent or any adult attendant, to be admitted free.

Dr. Harrower and Mrs. Guthrie are to determine all questions pertaining to the refreshments.

It being announced that Mr. Church, the Pub. Com. would necessarily be absent during Red Cross week, Dr. Harrower and Mr. Beamon were appointed publicity committees pro tem, and during absence of Mr. Church. Dr. Harrower on posters, dodgers and newspapers; Mr. Beamon on automobiles, moving picture that moves," as was comprehensively suggested by Mrs. Ocker.

Dr. McCrea stated that the object of the meeting was to consider and prepare for the great membership drive during President Wilson's appointed "Red Cross Week," from June 18 to June 25. It was decided to appoint one team for each election district; Mrs. R. E. Chase, the general chairman for that work, will assemble the sub-chairman of all the teams, and assign one election district to each team, for a house-to-house canvass to increase the Red Cross membership, throughout Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo, during the five canvassing days. The team heads will be appointed by Mrs. R. E. Chase, generalissimo, and will be published later.

The Boy Scouts are to be asked to distribute literature. Also to take part in a big parade a week from next Saturday at the band concert. This evening a general meeting of all Glendale Boy Scouts will be held in the Congregational Church. Mr. Church will be there and ask their aid. Dodgers are to be placed in packages sent out by grocers, suggested by Beamon, "and in laundry bundles," added Church, "and rolled up in newspapers for delivery," supplemented Cowan, "even if it is prohibited. Anything in reason for Red Cross." Dr. Harrower asked help in his publicity work, and Mr. Cowan suggested that Mrs. W. E. Evans be invited to aid him, as she writes unusually well, clearly and logically, with her manuscript generally in first-class shape.

Mrs. Ocker suggested that the Red Cross slogan be: "Join the Red Cross Now." Adopted.

The moving picture shows will advertise it on their screens, and the newspapers will keep it running.

As the official publicity committee, Walt Le Noir Church, cannot be present to help during the great membership drive, he respectfully suggests some new words to an old song, which might be sung at the public meetings, and win a few members.

"Send Out the Red Cross," (Air: "Throw Out the Life Line.") Somewhere in Europe the cannon's wild roar; Somewhere the death shells destruction galore. Patriotic heroes fall there by the score— All through the carnage the fallen implore:

"Send out The Red Cross; send out The Red Cross," Legions of writhing ones cry. "Send out The Red Cross; send on

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

JAP WOMAN AND CHILD ASSAULTED BY BRUTE AND BEATEN.

In a beautiful little bungalow beneath shade trees and within a stone's throw of the Pacific avenue school, and only a few rods from Riverdale drive, one of the finest residential streets in Glendale, and in broad daylight, at 756 Pacific avenue occurred one of the most dastardly assaults that has ever taken place in this city, Thursday.

In this little bungalow resides S. M. Neino and family, Japanese people. Mr. Neino was attending to gardening work on Chestnut street and his wife was attending to household duties at home. A few minutes before 11 o'clock in the forenoon the school children called the attention of their teachers to a peculiar groaning noise that seemed to be within the Neino bungalow.

Upon making investigation it was learned that Mrs. Neino had been seriously assaulted by someone who had used a hammer with such force over the woman's head that the handle was slightly broken. A 2-year-old child, who was also in the room, was pounded to a state of unconsciousness by use of the hammer.

Dr. R. E. Chase was called and the woman and child were removed to the hospital department of the Glendale Sanitarium where the woman is lying in an unconscious state, not expected to recover. The child will recover.

As to who committed the crime is a mystery. The Glendale police were notified immediately after the discovery of the terrible affair by the teachers and they have been working on the case.

A man was seen in the neighborhood of the crime a short time before the crime was committed. This suspicious character called at several homes near the Neino bungalow and at one place inquired as to the location of Jap residences.

The crime was a terrible one and every effort possible should be taken to find the guilty person.

PRIMARY GRADUATES ENTERTAINED.

Superintendent of the primary department of the Congregational Sunday school, Mrs. E. D. Yard, entertained the graduates of the class Friday afternoon with a delightful little party at her home, 127 North Maryland. The Congregational Church was organized five years ago and two of the little girls in Mrs. Yard's class have been with her all that time. She considers that very remarkable, in as much as they have been absent very few times. These two faithful little ladies are Misses Joy Willisford and Josephine Franklin. The little folks spent a delightful afternoon in playing games. Decorations were in red, white and blue and the same color scheme was carried out in the dainty luncheon. Others present besides the two mentioned were Nathan Finch, Robert McReynolds, Spencer Ballew, Mary Beers, Virginia Buriff, Alexander Chase, Benjy Hogue, Garland Murdoch, Ruth Coates and Isabelle Franklin.

DEATH OF CLIFDEN HOLLEY.

Clifden C. Holley, 812 South Brand boulevard, passed away about 1 o'clock Friday morning, June 8, after a long illness. He was born in the State of Louisiana, November 11, 1873, and was engaged in the insurance business for a number of years. He came to Glendale more than three years ago. The deceased is mourned by his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Holley.

Funeral services will be held at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors Saturday at 2 p.m. Interment at Forest Lawn.

The Red Cross.

Thousands of wounded will die. Send out the Red Cross beyond the dark wave. Millions are wounded—some we can save; Somebody's hero, so gallant and true— Send out the Red Cross—all we can do.

Send out the Red Cross, before things grow worse! Send out the Red Cross, with surgeon and nurse; You may not go there, your service to give; You can join the Red Cross, that some one may live. "Send out the Red Cross! Send on the Red Cross," Legions of writhing ones cry;

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1917.

OPEN SELVAS DE VERDUGO.

To music lovers and those interested in the art of Spanish song and dance and to whom the romance of the early Spanish days in California has a meaning, the program announced for the formal opening of Selvas de Verdugo (Verdugo Woodlands), Saturday and Sunday, June 9 and 10, will have a strong appeal. The program has been arranged by the F. P. Newport Company and is said to conform in every essential detail to the Spanish fiestas which formed a part of the California life of the early days. Listed on this program are the names of several performers of international reputation, including the charming Matildita of "Mission Play" fame; Madame Estelle Heartt Dreyfus, who has elicited enthusiastic comment, not only in America, but in music centers abroad, by her sympathetic interpretation of Spanish songs, and Senor Luis Ferrazzano, distinguished baritone and formerly star of the Buenos Ayres Grand Opera Company. Addresses will be made, dealing with the early history of Southern California and will be given by men who possess a wealth of quaintly interesting experiences gained at first hand back in the days of the Mission Padres. Among the speakers are Ex-Senator R. F. Del Valle, father of the charming Lucretia Del Valle; Dr. Charles F. Lummis, president of the Southern California Landmarks Club; J. S. Thompson, Mayor of Glendale, and J. McDowell Mathews, well-known lecturer and student of Southern California development.

Pepito and Leola Ferrando, whose names are familiar to Orpheum Theatre patrons, and who are recognized as two of the foremost exponents of the Spanish dance, will give for the first time in the United States their charming "La Malagena y El Torero."

Spanish songs, those wonderful vivid elemental melodies so full of color and feeling, are to be sung by Estelle Heartt Dreyfus during the program of the fiesta. Mrs. Dreyfus, so well-known to Los Angeles audiences, having lived here nearly all her life, is peculiarly fitted to be the interpreter of these Spanish songs. Her association with much of the earlier Spanish life here, as well as her intense love of and interest in all kinds of Spanish music, has caused her to be called one of the foremost American singers of Spanish songs in the United States. She has given whole programs of Spanish music before a number of our leading clubs. She has also been fortunate enough to gain the interest and assistance of some of the best-known folk song collectors and also in turn some of the greatest musicians have made piano arrangements of these Spanish songs for Mrs. Dreyfus, thus giving her a most unusual repertoire. Mrs. Dreyfus will tell the story in English of each song she sings and there at Selvas de Verdugo amid the verdant Verdugo hills these songs will be sung again where perhaps in the early days the hill-sides have echoed and re-echoed with these same beautiful melodies.

Senor Luis Ferrazzano will sing his famous "Laughing Song." Senor Ferrazzano is a newcomer to Southern California, having appeared for a short season in San Francisco on his way from the southern continent to Los Angeles. He has a very pleasing personality and a rich voice which he uses with great dramatic power. He has appeared at several social, as well as charitable, affairs since his recent arrival in Los Angeles and has been acclaimed a singer of exceptional ability. He will be accompanied by Miss Ann Mellon at the piano.

Madame Matildita will present her company of Spanish dancers—some twenty-six or more—which will render a number of vivid and tuneful dances, as danced in old Spain.

The Selvas de Verdugo Band, under the direction of J. V. Havener, will render an appropriate musical program.

Selvas de Verdugo is located just off the Verdugo Canyon road on Canada boulevard, north of the business center of Glendale. Glendale Pacific Electric cars run through the property.

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—Gov. Stephens used his pocket veto with telling effect on some of the measures which were considered important by the Legislature. He failed to approve the anti-injunction bill, which precipitated lively debate in the Legislature and was considered an important labor measure; the anti-trading stamp bill and the reclamation measures. He signed the insurance measures, including the anti-rebate act, the agents qualification and the brokers license bills. Irrigation bill also listed among the important legislation, met with the Governor's approval.

GRAND SPANISH FIESTA PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Among the performers of international reputation who will appear in the "Fiesta of Spanish Story, Song and Dance," to be given by the F. P. Newport Co. at the formal opening of Selvas de Verdugo (Verdugo Woodlands) Saturday, June 9th, and Sunday, June 10th, will be Matildita, conceded to be the foremost exponent of the Spanish dance in America and who had charge of the Spanish dancing in the Mission Play; Estelle Heartt Dreyfus, well known not only in Los Angeles, but in music centers abroad, who has made a special study of the early Spanish life and of Spanish music and has been called one of the most capable American singers of Spanish songs in the United States; and Senor Luis Ferrazzano, baritone, formerly star of the Buenos Ayres Grand Opera Company and

"WHY A BRIDGE?"

Also, "why NOT a bridge?"

Those two questions were puzzling the secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce during the several hours he spent on the duplex inquiry yesterday afternoon in City Hall, Los Angeles, and the Hall of Records, including the Supervisors' rooms.

However, much of the main problem remained unsolved, this much was made clear to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce Investigating Committee of one: Los Angeles ought to be, and doubtless is, very proud of the courteous unwearied attention her city and county officials give a sister city's Chamber of Commerce secretary on information bent.

Do you remember what happened to the son of Jacob who insisted in telling his thrilling little drummer's story to "The head of the house," who happened to be located up next to the roof of a sky-scraper. The irate boss needlessly interrupted on a matter the basement porter might have answered, started the master drummer down the upper flight of steps with more rapidity than was expected of a mere No. 9 propeller; with a shouted command to those below, whose singing has recently caused a sensation in Los Angeles music circles. Spanish dances will also be given by Pepito and Leola Ferrando, whose names are familiar to Orpheum Theatre patrons. They will dance their charming "La Malagena y El Torero," never before danced in the United States. Madame Matildita will present her company of Spanish dancers—some twenty-six or more—which will render a number of the vivid and tuneful dances of old Spain.

Addresses will be made dealing with the interesting early history of Southern California, by Ex-Senator R. F. Del Valle, father of the charming Lucretia Del Valle, Dr. Chas. F. Lummis, President of the Southern California Landmarks Club, J. S. Thompson, Mayor of Glendale, and J. McDowell Mathews, well-known lecturer. A delightful musical program has been arranged by the Selvas de Verdugo band under the direction of J. V. Havener. Program begins at 1 p. m. Saturday and Sunday.

Take Montrose car at Brand and Broadway—or motor up Verdugo Canyon Road to Canada Boulevard, to Selvas de Verdugo. Admission free.

which shunted the M-D. down flight after flight till he struck the street in a bunch. Now the secretary had no such stunt of greatness as that thrust upon him; but when at last he was again down and out on Broadway, headed for the loveliest Home City on earth, he did exclaim, with both wonder and admiration, "Mein lieber Himmel, vot a system!"

The wonder also is, how or why a hard-hearted people would ever turn any of such good fellows out of office. They ought to be kept in for life, and would be if popular gratitude were not so emotional.

The secretary's solemn report on "Bridges I have known" specializing on the one yeapt "Ivanhoe," will give a more than usual interest to the general Chamber of Commerce meeting next Monday evening at 7:30, when, for the first time, all the new life members (as well as the old,) are expected to be present to join in "a game of bridge," which will mean a great deal to The Greater Glendale, and to her flourishing suburb, Los Angeles, already really a promising city.

Personals

Mrs. F. W. Anderson has returned to Glendale after an absence of five months in Arizona. With her family she has taken a house at 320 Blanche avenue, Tropic, where they will move the first of the week.

Miss Vera Sinclair, 221 Sinclair avenue, who underwent a serious operation at Thornycroft Hospital last week, is recovering nicely. This will be welcome news to all the friends of the young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ginn and daughter, Clara, returned to their home in Fresno the first of the week after visiting friends in Glendale for several days. The Ginn family formerly resided at 128 Orange.

Thursday evening Dr. Russell was a guest at the alumni banquet given by the College of Law, U.S.C., at the University Club, a number of the most prominent jurists of the State being present. Over 150 guests were seated.

Miss Dorothy Hunt, who lives with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Hunt, of Belmont and Fifth streets, has sufficiently recovered from her recent quite serious attack of asthma to resume her studies at school. Her friends will all be glad to hear of her speedy recovery.

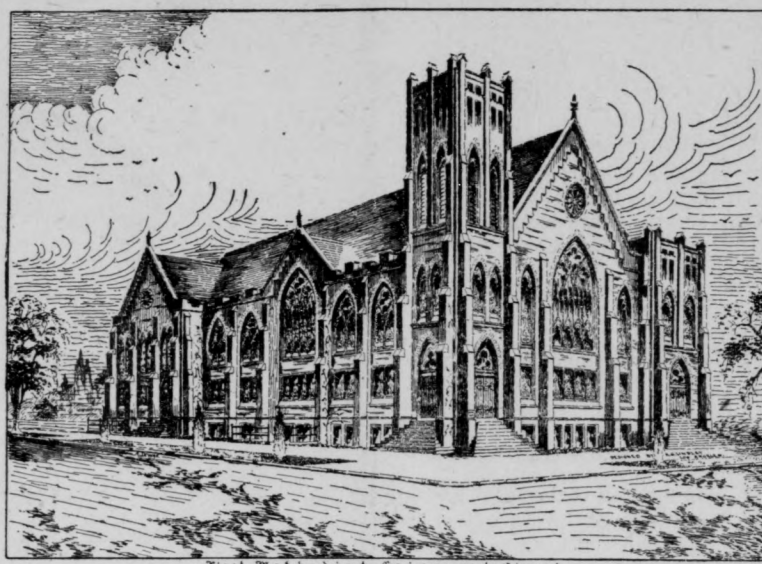

Mr. E. M. Polley, former teacher and athletic instructor at the Third street intermediate school, was back in Glendale visiting friends yesterday, after an absence of about two years. Mr. Polley has been teaching in one of the Oakland schools the past term, and he is planning on returning in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Flickinger and daughter, Pauline, of Morrill, Kan., were guests Thursday at the J. B. Doner home, 309 Orange street. Mrs. Doner and Mrs. Flickinger are cousins. The Flickingers are making an extended trip through the West, leaving Monday for Fresno and other points in California, Oregon and Washington.

DEDICATION OF NEW M. E. CHURCH

Services of dedication will be held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Kenwood and Third Streets, Glendale, California, Sunday, June 10th, 1917.

District Superintendent Rev. A. Ray Moore, South Pasadena, Cal., and Pastor B. Dudley Snudden will participate in these services.

Dedication Day preachers will be Rev. Benjamin S. Haywood, D.D., First Methodist Episcopal Church, Riverside, Cal., Rev. James H. Speer, D.D., Superintendent Church Extension Board, Presbyterian Church, Rev. Charles Edward Locke, D.D., LL.D., First Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lynch are moving this week from 216 Orange street to 1461 West Second.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell was the guest of Mrs. Lewis R. Works, president of the Woman's Club, when she entertained her executive board at luncheon, Thursday. The beautiful home on Kingsley drive was profusely decorated with golden roses and greenery—the same color scheme being carried out in the table appointments. Included in the list of guests were Mrs. Edward Rankin Brainerd, Mrs. E. C. Bellows and other past presidents of the club.

Word has been received from Mr. Edwin Heacock, who up until last week was a resident of Glendale but who has moved to Wyoming, stating that he arrived at Casper, Wyo., Monday afternoon. He left Los Angeles Saturday, making the trip in about a day and a half. Mr. Heacock has taken out a homestead, and is planning on sending for his bride, formerly Miss Helen Svenson, as soon as his house is built. Both of these young people have a large number of friends in and around Glendale, and all the success in the world is wished for their future.

Mrs. A. E. Patch of 323 Belmont street, assisted by Miss Hazel Anderson of 503 West Third street, and Mrs. R. C. Anderson of 468 Orange Grove, entertained with a picnic on Saturday. The affair was given in honor of Mr. Patch, who left Saturday evening for Gallup, N. M.; also for Carl Patch of Minnesota, who expects to leave for his home shortly. Others present were Doty L. Anderson, Winnie, Ozro and Leone Anderson, Mr. R. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Hartley and little Miss Virginia Hartley.

DORAN STREET P. T. A.

The Doran street Parent-Teachers' Association held their regular meeting Wednesday at the school. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Plaster, the vice-president, Mrs. F. H. Cassell, presided. There was a short business session, during which it was voted to use the $43 recently cleared at the benefit entertainment for school ground apparatus, including a nice slide, rings and bars, etc. Little Miss Shirley Chase gave several readings in her own charming way that were much appreciated. The teachers then entertained the mothers present, serving ice cream and cake. The new officers for the coming year are Mrs. Henry Cassell, president; Mrs. L. M. Richardson, vice-president; Mrs. R. C. Lane, secretary; Mrs. Fred Myton, treasurer; Mrs. Claude Case, historian.

NOTICE TO W.C.T.U. MEMBERS.

Mrs. Hanning, superintendent of the Flower Mission department, has discovered that there is a dearth of flowers at the local hospitals, while at the County Hospital few of the patients see a single flower. She requests each member and friend to bring a bouquet to the next meeting and a committee will distribute the flowers among the hospitals. This meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Laura Hyatt, 1634 West Broadway, Tuesday afternoon. With Mrs. Hanning leader, we are assured of a real live program. Don't forget the countersign, a bouquet!

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness and for the beautiful flowers received during our bereavement.

We wish also to express our hearty appreciation of the services of the G.A.R. comrades and of Rev. C. A. Norcross and the singers. MRS. ROBERT BELL and CHILDREN. 11*

FREAKS OF THE TORNADO.

In all the daily paper accounts of the recent tornado in Illinois no mention was made of Clark county, visitation, chiefly, I suppose, because no lives were lost. But there were so many peculiar features of the disaster as outlined in my old paper, the Marshall Herald, that I think a brief mention of them may interest some of the many Illinois people who see the widely read Glendale News.

As is well known, the tornado's usual course is from southwest to northeast. Such has been the case with the five former storms, causing loss of life and property, that have visited portions of Clark county during the past sixty years. In this case the tornado pursued a most erratic course. From Mattoon it went almost due east to Charleston, thence due south into Clark county, unroofing barns and houses and blowing down trees. Two stores in Clarksville, a small settlement seven miles northwest of Marshall, were unroofed, and a lady driving along the road had an arm broken when her buggy was overturned. The storm next struck the earth at the railroad station a mile north of the center of Marshall, scattered several sacks of mail over near-by fields, sped on southeast unroofing barns and houses, until Big Creek was reached, when it dipped down into the creek bottom, fully 150 feet below the level of the surrounding fields. A large two-story brick house, a handsome big new barn and silo were completely torn to pieces. The occupant of the farm on which these buildings were located was badly bruised and cut, but his wife and six children, who were with him in the house, were uninjured. The storm swept on down the creek bottom till it reached the long covered bridge by which the old National Road crossed the stream. This bridge was unroofed but not otherwise damaged. It was the last of the old covered bridges on the National Road. It was built in 1837 and the main timbers and big wooden arches are sound as the day the bridge was built. The storm now swept up to the high ground, demolished a large one-story brick farm house, then struck the little village of Livingston, which was founded in 1830, and for ten years thereafter was a thriving settlement. Every building but one was demolished, as was also the old brick Methodist Church, which had stood for seventy-five years and defied two previous tornadoes. The cemetery adjoining the church also suffered greatly. Fifty or more giant forest trees were uprooted or broken off and many marble monuments blown down and some of them carried some distance away. This was the oldest church building in the county and Rev. Robert McIntyre, who was a bishop when he died a few years ago, after filling the pulpit of the Los Angeles First Methodist Church several years, preached in it many times when he filled the pastorate of the Marshall M. E. Church. The storm kept on its destructive course till it reached the Wabash River, when it lifted and was heard of no more. It seems marvelous that scores of dwelling houses and barns could be torn to pieces and yet not a person nor an animal killed. On one farm there were three horses in a barn, with all the doors fastened. The barn was unroofed and later the three horses were found grazing in a near-by pasture, unhurt, but the barn doors were still fastened.

Another Recruit

The trend of the times is toward the cash system of doing business. If all credit customers would keep their word and pay in full exactly as they promise, there would be no complaint; but, sad to say, the majority will not do so, but fall behind a little at a time until the aggregate sum owed by all the "slackers" wipes out the merchant's profit. Hence, beginning

SUNLAND

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley and daughters spent Sunday in Topanga Canyon.

Mrs. Maxwell of Los Angeles was calling on friends in Sunland Sunday.

Born to Mrs. Charles Grennenger of Duarte, a son. Congratulations Charley.

Last Friday Mrs. William Blumfield reached the seventy-second mile stone in her life. On returning home from the graduating exercises in the park she found a beautiful bouquet of seventy-two carnations on her table and later was surprised by her daughter, Mrs. Fench, with a party of friends. Dainty refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Blumfield was indeed surprised.

Mrs. Armone and daughter, and Mrs. Rubrick have moved from the Branstetter apartments to Mrs. Ewing's house on Los Angeles street.

Mr. Rowley has secured the services of Miss Osgood as clerk in his hardware store. Mr. Rowley's trade has increased so much of late that it was impossible to handle it alone.

Mr. Philip Johnson and family are moving into rooms in Mrs. Thomas's house.

Miss Oakey and Mrs. Chris Beckmeyer were the guests of Miss Marie Lancaster one day this week.

Miss Dot Cahill received a sad message from Pittsburgh, Pa., telling her of the passing away of her sister, Miss Margaret Cahill, June 6. Miss Margaret spent the winter with her sister in Sunland and made many warm friends, who will be grieved to hear of her death.

Mr. Hugh Waddel came up from Los Angeles Wednesday and accompanied Mr. Alfred Adams, Jr., and son, Elmer, up the Big Tujunga on a fishing trip, Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Orville Page of Los Angeles is staying at the Mears ranch for a few days, helping with the work on the new bungalow which is now rapidly nearing completion.

Louis A. Aguilar of Los Angeles was a guest Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Albert Shelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tench and son,

George, of Los Angeles, were visitors Tuesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Tench's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blumfield.

B. F. Mears has a beautiful new Buick "Six."

Mrs. Abrams returned home Thursday evening after a few days' visit in Los Angeles.

Miss Florence Duffee is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Abrams.

Mrs. Ella Barnhard has rented a piano for the rest room in her attractive dry goods store. Mrs. Barnhard spends no pains to make everything attractive for her customers.

A box of good things is being filled to send Monday to our boys in the navy. It is at Mrs. Barnhard's store. Everybody is welcome to add their mite.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer of Tropico attended church in Sunland Sunday.

The graduating exercises of the Monte Vista school were a decided success and the children did credit to the school in the ease and grace in which they took their parts in the play "Florinda." The winding of the May Pole by the fairies, accompanied by Miss Green on the piano, was exceptionally fine. The Valley Band played two numbers.

Mr. Walter R. Maygrove gave a piano solo, Roland Percey a cornet solo. A trio by Leslie, Cecil and Roland Percey was much enjoyed.

Mr. A. Adams presented the diplomas, after which congratulations were showered upon the graduates.

Miss M. Minita Huse spent the week-end in Los Angeles and attended services at the Temple Baptist Church Sunday.

Miss Marie Lancaster is visiting friends in Los Angeles this week.

Master George Kincaid was surprised on his birthday Monday by friends from Bellflower, who brought a lovely picnic dinner and spent the day with him, after which he accompanied them to Bellflower and spent a few days visiting.

One of the pleasant social events of the week was a surprise of a shower for the principal, Miss Green, planned by Mrs. McNabb at her beautiful home on First street. After the graduating exercises Friday evening Miss Green was invited to Mrs. McNabb's to bid her good-by and was met by a room full of friends, patrons and pupils of her school. A basket filled with little gifts was showered upon her. Mrs. McNabb served dainty refreshments of cake and punch, with Miss Mary Louise presiding at the punch bowl. The good wishes of everybody go with Miss Green.

WILD AND WOOLY.

"Darling," sighed the knitting needle, "Wool you marry me?"

But Miss Zepher Yarn so fluffy, Nought but "Knit," said she.

Talk about the wild and woolly West, it isn't in it for wildness and wooliness with the effete East these days. You'll find all the feminine wits on Fifth Avenue have gone wool gathering and now have their hands full. In limousines, taxis and on tops of the busses, socks, mufflers and chest protectors are growing for soldiers and sailors.

I even encountered several strolling ladies with their knitting all ready for business in one hand, not even under cover of a hand bag. They held it thus in the open so they could take advantage of any little stopovers and waits for traffic to take a few stitches, en passant as it were. Most woolly enthusiasts have their mufflers muffled or their chest protectors protected in one of the gay cretonne knitting bags when not in active use.

The array of these bags is positively fascinating. So much so that even the most rabid of anti-knitters would be glad to yank a hank of yarn and a pair of needles and get busy just in order to bag a bag.

They are evolved from the brightest bits of cretonne and figured linen trimmed in cords, tassels or galoon and varicolored satin apples, fringes, festoons and frills. Some more ornate are of silk and satin trimmed in French ribbon flowers. Attached to the tall walking sticks they are most handy for those who walk while they work.

All the wool gathering isn't being done for the military or the marines though, by any manner of means. It takes three skeins to make a regulation army or navy muffler, but it is hard to gauge just how much it takes to trim and fringe milady's dress of Jersey cloth, serge or georgette crepe. To be a really successful frock it must have wool embroidery around the hem, the cuffs, the neck, the pockets and the belt. There are yarn tassels, too, and yarn fringe to finish wool and wooly.

Wool doesn't even stop at outer garments, but invades the realm of lingerie. It is a far cry from the woolen lingerie of 1917 to the aesthetic red and grey woolen union suits our parents used to make us don when we were young and helpless. Today envelope chemises, nighties and combinations of salmon pink, purple or turquoise blue Georgette crepe are embroidered lavishly in yarn of diverse hues. This modernist underwear is certainly right up to scratch.

Smocks and slipover blouses of Georgette crepe are also fulsomely darned. Even some of the smartest new bathing suits have the habit with cunning little yarn fringes around their abbreviated skirts and bobbing yarn tassels on these pockets and topping the smart and rakish bathing caps. It is to be hoped, however, that a generous cake of wool soap will accompany each wool embroidered mermaid when she goes in for her dip.

Dame Fashion is actually trying to pull the wool over our eyes as is evidenced by the new yarn embroidered and bordered veils that float in the breeze from our close little hats.

Then there are the hats themselves. Of course they are numbered among the wooly ones, and parasols reveal in raveled yarn fringes, and unfurl their knitting new under the sun.

Collar and cuff sets of Georgette crepe, button holed around their edges in bright toned wool are most effective and Jabots, wool garnished, are neck and neck with the latest summer modes. Jabots of all sorts, by the way, are very much to the front and spill their frilly froth of lace and cascades of chiffon crepe

Historical Facts

Concerning

COFFEE

KAFFA

Discovered in Arabia during the Fifteenth Century.

Brought by pilgrims from Mecca into Egypt. They called it "Kahwah."

It became very popular.

The first public coffee house opened in Venice in 1615 and is still in existence.

Pope Clement VIII baptized coffee and proclaimed it un-harmful and a "truly Christian beverage."

To Paris in 1671 the first coffee was brought and served to King Louis XIV and his court, and coffee became the favorite drink.

The use of coffee gradually spread over the rest of Europe, when in 1912 a Better Blend of coffee was introduced to American citizens of Glendale by Sir Frances Booth, then known as the Coffee King. His store is still in existence at 1605 W. Broadway, Glendale, America, where this Better Coffee is sold at 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c and 45c the pound.

Roasted and Ground Fresh Daily

To-day the annual consumption of coffee in the United States is over 925,000,000 lbs.
